Game play

- The player throws all six dice.
- After each throw, one or more dice that count towards scoring points must be set aside. See the scoring section.
- Play continues until:
 - A player decides to stop and record their score on their recording sheet. OR
 - A player doesn't roll any scoring dice and loses their accumulated rolled points. The recorded points are not affected. OR
 - A player has kept all six dice and MUST roll all six dice again and continue adding points while potentially risking losing their points.
- Play continues clockwise and follows the same steps.
